1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the principles of the theory of the function of the mind. It is shown that the mind is not a passive organ, but an active organ, and that it is capable of receiving information from the outside world, and of acting upon the outside world. It is shown that the mind is not a mere collection of ideas, but a collection of ideas which are connected together in a certain way, and which are capable of acting upon the outside world. It is shown that the mind
